

Other Tools and Equipment

General Operating Instructions

- Protect yourself from flying chips by wearing safety goggles or glasses that include side protectors or a full face shield.
- Ensure that drill bits and other tools that are to be fastened to the equipment are securely fastened.
- Generally follow the general operating instructions for the machine that the tool is being used on.
- Safety of yourself and those around you is your responsibility where you are working.